Philippians: A Life to Die For

Part 5: A Life of Satisfaction

Yes, and I will rejoice, for I know that through your prayers and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ this will turn out for my deliverance, as it is my eager expectation and hope that I will not be at all ashamed, but that with full courage now as always Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. Yet which I shall choose I cannot tell. I am hard pressed between the two. My desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better. But to remain in the flesh is more necessary on your account. Convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, so that in me you may have ample cause to glory in Christ Jesus, because of my coming to you again.

- Philippians 1:18b-26 (ESV)

MISSING SOMETHING?

Central's lost and found is full to the brim with adorable winter hats, lonely mittens, partnerless earrings, and a handful of children's toys. If you're missing an item you value (or even an item you don't value), be sure to stop by the Info Desk in Grand Central to claim it before we need to make room for new lost items.

CONGRATULATIONS
