WELCOME TO THE "CENTRAL 70!"

We are so glad you're here!

Whether you are a regular attender, new to the area, or new to Central Church, we hope that you find the next 70 minutes to be inspiring and meaningful as you start your week.

Today's service will include music from a full band, various creative elements, and a strong commitment to accurately teach the truth of the Bible.

Our Communication Card gives us a chance to hear from you, so please use it! At the end of the service, we will ask you to share a response to what you felt, learned, or experienced through the message. It's also a great way to let us know if we can serve you in any way. We will collect these cards at the end of the service when the offering buckets are passed.

If you have children, our team at KidCentral is ready to serve your kids with dynamic, age-appropriate ministry (birth – 5th grade). Any of our staff or volunteers with a red lanyard are happy to take you to the Children's Ministry Wing if you're not sure where to go.

We truly hope you enjoy your experience here today. Welcome!

REAL. LIFE. FRIENDSHIP.

The Bible is filled with stories of people from every walk of life. These people existed within the context of human relationships. Because of sin in the world, sometimes these relationships became toxic and evil resulted. But other times, relationships in the Bible demonstrated humanity's potential for good.

At times people reflected the very nature of God as they loved, encouraged, and sacrificed for someone else. When this happened, not only did it represent humanity at its finest, but it displayed an important aspect of God's character. Yes, God is sometimes revealed through the quality of human relationships. In this series, we will look at several human relationships in the Bible and how they reflect the character of God. I hope as we see God in these relationships we will appreciate His greatness even more.
